- Trajectory 1 (Solid line): This trajectory starts at the top left, moves slightly right and up, then diagonally down and right, ending at the bottom right.
- Trajectory 2 (Dashed line): This trajectory starts at the top left, moves slightly right and up, then diagonally down and right, ending at the bottom right.
- Trajectory 3 (Dash-dot line): This trajectory starts at the top left, moves slightly right and up, then diagonally down and right, ending at the bottom right.
- Trajectory 4 (Dotted line): This trajectory starts at the top left, moves slightly right and up, then diagonally down and right, ending at the bottom right.
