3 Join the front with the back pieces at the side seam with RST. (See Pic C.)

4 Bias-bind the whole neckline. For more help on how to attach bias binding, go to www.simplesewpatterns.com/pages/how-to-attach-bias-binding (See Pic D.)

5 Turn in the front hems that create the waterfall edge by 2cm and secure with a line of stitching. (See Pic E.)

6 Fold up the bottom corner so the inside fabric edge matches up. (See Pic F.)

7 Turn up bottom hem by 2cm, pin in place and stitch the hem all the way around. (See Pic G.)

8 Secure the mitred corner with a diagonal row of stitches. (See Pic H.)

9 Choose the depth for the sleeve hems (between 2cm and 4cm). Turn up the hem and top-stitch in place. (See Pic I.)

"THE WATERFALL CARDIGAN IS A PERFECT PIECE FOR LAYERING AND IS QUICK TO MAKE DUE TO ITS EASY CONSTRUCTION. INDULGE YOURSELF AND USE A LUXURIOUS DRAPED FABRIC, CREATE AN EVERYDAY VERSION FROM COMFORTABLE JERSEY, OR TRY AN ORGANIC FABRIC SUCH AS BAMBOO JERSEY THAT IS BEAUTIFULLY SOFT AND GENTLE ON THE SKIN"
