CUTTING LINE FOR UN-PLEATED

Handwriting practice lines for the number 5. The page contains multiple rows of lines within a dashed rectangular border. Each row typically consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a dotted bottom line. Some rows include a row of 'x' marks between the middle and bottom lines. The lines are slightly slanted downwards from left to right. The rows are distributed across the page, leaving a larger blank area at the bottom for independent practice.
