CONSTRUCTION

- Cut out the pattern taking note of the grain lines and the notes written on the pattern pieces as this will assist you in the construction of the top.
 - Mark the notches with chalk and clip inward 1/8" or 3mm this makes it easier to match your notches as sewing, do be careful not to clip in deeper than the seam allowance.
1. Seam allowance is 6mm or 1/4 inch
 2. Sew the front & back shoulder seams together, it is recommended to tape the shoulder seams to stop any stretching
 3. Fold the neck band in half and pin it to the neckline slightly stretching as you go, once in place sew the neck band to the neck.
 4. Set the sleeves into the armhole following the notches.
 5. Stitch the elastic to the side seam of front panel between the notches where marked on the pattern, stretch the elastic on as you sew.
 6. Starting at the hemline sew the front and back side seams together, sew up to the under arm and continue down the sleeve seam.

DOWNLOADABLE PATTERN TIPS

Starting Pointers

1. Print on letter or A4 size paper. Make sure you print the document in actual size. Do not scale or re-size it in any way – if you do, the pattern will not work!
2. Your pattern will print on multiple pages, which you need to match together, just like a jigsaw puzzle. I know, it takes a LONG time, but that's why we sell hardcopy patterns!
3. Locate the page that contains the "Test Square". It's probably best to print this first, to make sure the size is correct. Once printed use a ruler to measure each side of the square – it should measure 10cm or 4". If it doesn't please check your print settings and try again.

Putting your pattern together

1. Once printed you'll notice a solid red rectangle on each pattern page. This marks the edge of the individual tiles. You'll need to line these up when putting your pattern together.
2. You'll also notice some markings along each edge in a blue triangle. These tell you which pages go with which. Match "A" to "A" and "1" to "1". Letters run horizontally across the page, while numbers run vertically down the page.
3. We've also numbered all the pattern pages and included a diagram to show you how all they all fit together, in case you have trouble.
4. We suggest you cut or fold one side of the page and match it to its corresponding side ("A" to "A", "B" to "B", etc). Line up the red cut lines and the pattern pieces that span across the two pages. Once it's all lined up, tape the pieces together.
5. You'll work out what works best for you, but we find that taping a whole row together works best. Then once all rows are done, you can tape each row together to finish the pattern!
6. Once finished, you can use the taped pattern, as it is, or trace it onto your own large format paper.
